Most villages in Papua New Guinea are not accessible by road. Here is a glimpse of one of them from the air.

Thick fog hiding trees on the other side of the runway means this is not a good time to fly.

In August, the teachers from Ukarumpa International School met for a 3-day annual retreat. Workshops were provided for our ongoing professional training, and time was spent getting to know the other teachers. We have teachers from 13 different countries. Ukarumpa International School in Papua New Guinea is a PreK-12 school for the 300+ children of SIL members who serve in Bible translation and a variety of support and ministry roles. Right now, we have some urgent needs.

◀ Sunshine goes in, and Christian programming comes out. The spoken Word of God and music that glorifies Him is heard. We have placed hundreds of these solar-powered, fix-tuned radios in the coverage area of Wantok Radio Light.

Charlie is helping us replace the roofing on our haus win.

Michael's Psalm 96

Praise. Written 16 August 2007, 2 Elul 5767

Jesus the Messiah rules!

Jesus Christ reigns in Heaven!

Every time I have a problem, He is there to help.

Each time I call on Him, He listens.

Such love from the Master is amazing!

Such attention from the Creator is wonderful!

Under Yahweh's righteous rule, we rejoice.

Under our Father's protection, we rest securely.

Surely, I rejoice to follow Jesus.

Sacrifice to the Lord is my delight.

Real riches come from our Father.

Satan offers only temporary imitations.

Everlasting joy is better than gold or fame.

Heaven's delights are everlasting.

I see only hints and imperfect images of Paradise, here.

I look forward to real Paradise with my Savior.

God is greater than all of mankind.

Nobody is as good and righteous as God.

No angel or spirit can compare with the Almighty Father.

Every created being owes life to Him.

Sing praises to God for joy in Him!

Shout victory for God's Kingdom!
