We've Got Mail!

Michael has received many "THANK YOU's" regarding both his electronic Scripture publishing and his work on the World English Bible (WEB). We want you to rejoice in the "fruit that abounds to your account" because of your partnership with us. These accolades are as much for YOU, our partners, as they are for us; and of course, we give thanks to our Lord who has enabled Michael to do this work.

Hey Michael,
It's really amazing how you are taking these enormous leaps in posting more and more tokples Bibles in our Scripture websites. May the Lord use this to make the Word more accessible to more people. The Lord bless you.
David (PNG Bible Translation Association Director, Port Moresby)

Dear Editor:

First, heart-felt thanks for both the ASV and WEB. I grew up on the ASV, as our church gave me an 18-volume braille edition 45 years ago when a youngster. Since I have downsized, I am glad to discover this and the WEB on the web at your site.

Jim wrote about the World English Bible:

Let me close here with sincere gratitude for all of those who are generously donating their time and money to bring God's word to the English-speaking world in a fresh and unfettered form.

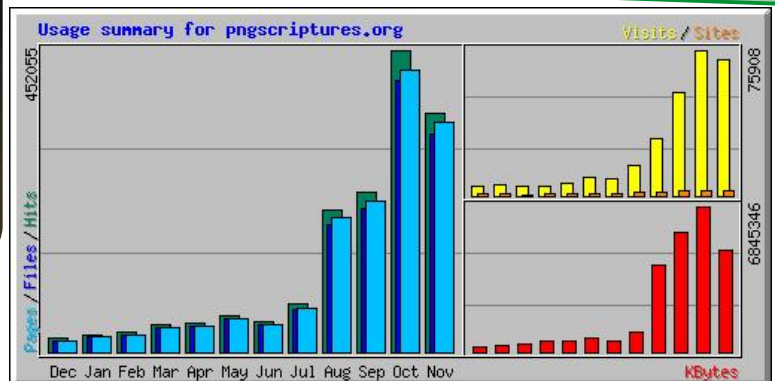

I enjoyed reading a bit and seeing the Ubir NT. ... I was filled with joy to see Ann Bokwakwarin (Genesis). I praise God for your web site...

I am working closely with Duncan Kasokason (Ubir translator) to prepare a an overview of Genesis as a preparation for the Genesis Launch in December. Thanks to you, I have it on computer to easily read and prepare materials for the launch.

Blessings,
Caine (Goroka, PNG)

Duncan Kasokason, translator of the Ubir New Testament+Genesis, 2nd from left, leading worship at a Bible study that Michael led while in Papua New Guinea

Traffic is increasing on all of our Scripture web sites, in all of the currently-published languages. Praise God!

Rachel's Column

I'm going to school at The Learning Center on the U of N Campus. My teacher is Mrs. Barker. I am in first grade.

I like to fly a kite with my Daddy. We made a kite with straws and paper, but this parrot kite that we got at a garage sale is prettier and flies higher.

Lori is teaching health education as a volunteer at the University of the Nations Primary Health Care School. Her experience as a high school teacher, missionary, and member of the HIV/AIDS Task Force in Papua New Guinea is helping her to prepare more missionaries to go into the field. She has been asked to teach more in the January quarter.
