NEWS FLASH
Lori is Going to Cambodia

by Lori

I will be heading to Siem Riep, Cambodia April 30-May 11 to teach a SHC (Simple Health Care) workshop to YWAM students and students from other NGOs (non-government organizations). It is a dream come true to be part of a Health Education team, training national people who want to share the Gospel to their neighbors through meeting their physical and spiritual needs.

I will be teaching with another member of the SHC team, Jeannie, who has two years of teaching this curriculum in India and Cambodia. This curriculum is designed mostly for oral learners and includes basic health care education and Godly principles at its core. Utilizing cultural stories, skits, posters and pamphlets in the local language, participants are encouraged to use their knowledge to impact their own community in order to decrease disease and premature death in their struggling communities. Part of the workshop requirement for the students is to participate in local outreaches during the week, teaching the health education topics that they were just taught. This is a beautiful way for the students to get “hands on” experience quickly with their teacher right next to them for encouragement.

Please pray for the right participants to attend this workshop, for Jeannie and I to be effective teachers and minister hope and love to the students and the communities we outreach in. Also, if you'd like to give towards the costs of the outreach that would be appreciated!

Michael is Going to Thailand

I will lead 2 workshops and attend several others related to electronic Scripture publishing during the last week of March and the first week of April. Please pray for God's inspiration, help, divine appointments, and effective ministry. Also please pray for Lori and Rachel while I'm away.

Not Just the Internet

by Michael

I have been working with the Digital Bible Society and various Bible agencies to increase not only the numbers of Bible translations online, but also working to increase the number of formats we put Scriptures in. Not everyone has easy, affordable, full-time Internet access to Bibles. For these brothers and sisters in Christ, we have the inScript Bible study application that runs in a browser even without Internet access. It is amazing how many audio and text Bible translations fit on a 32 GByte microSD card, and still leave room for The Jesus Film. There is also an online version. Check it out at Bibles.pw or eBible.org/study/.

I like to get new things! I just got new roller blades and new fish. The roller blade's names are Rolly and Rollers. The new fish are named Goldie and Pinkypie Glowfish. I also am getting new glasses. The eye doctor says that my eyes have improved so much that I only need to wear my glasses for reading and watching TV. That is really good, since last year, the eye doctor said that I was legally blind in one eye, but now vision in that eye is close to normal! Praise God!

How do you like to read the Bible?

by Michael

Paper Bibles are far from dead, but the publishing world and the habits of readers are changing, and more electronic books than paper ones are distributed. The cost of making a copy and shipping an electronic book is substantially less than the cost of printing and shipping a paper book. Also, the quality and affordability of devices that enable people to read these books keep improving. Some people's only Bible is electronic.

It is easier for me to find a given passage by reference or phrase quickly in an electronic Bible. And I can often listen to it.

What is your favorite way to study the Bible? Don't you wish everyone could do that?

We Thank God for:

- Awesome partners like you!
- Open doors to share God's love.
- Creativity in sharing God's Word.
- Protection and victory in Christ.
- Health and peace in our family.
- Victory in Jesus Christ!

*Jesus Christ is Lord!
